

Prof. Luigi Daniele
CURRICULUM VITAE (PRIN-2020)

Present Academical Position

- Full Professor of European Union Law – Department of Legal studies (Giurisprudenza) - Università di Roma Tor Vergata (from 1° november 2003) as well lecturer in Public International law and Private International law.
- For the same University he is holding classes in European Union law and in Private International law in the framework of the Agreements with the Carabinieri Corps and the Guardia di Finanza (Financial Police) as well as in the School of specialization for the legal professions.
- Director of PhD programme in Public law and member of the Coordination Body of the University PhD programmes, representing the Legal studies area
- member of the Steering Committee of the Department of legal studies;
- member of the Scientific Committee of the Law Library (until 2019).

Studies

- Law Degree (laurea in Giurisprudenza) magna cum laude (Università di Napoli-July 1977).

Previous academical positions

- Associate Professor and then Extraordinary Professor of Law of the European Communities – Faculty of Legal studies – Università di Trieste
- For the same University he hold the courses in Public International law and in Private International law, was the Director of the Institute of International and Comparative Legal studies and, later, Head of the Unit on International and European law within the Department of Legal studies as well as the Head of the European Documentation Center.
- Dean of the Faculty of Legal studies (Giurisprudenza) (November 1999 October 2003).
- Head of the PhD programme in European Community law (together with several Universities, including the “Statale” of Milan, the “Cattolica” of Milan, and the University of Genoa).

Futher academical experience

- Principal Investigator and Head of local research Units for several PRIN (Research projects of National importance) funded by the Italian State (MURST/MIUR).
- Held courses at the LUISS Guido Carli University in Roma in European Union Law and in Advanced European Union law (Faculty of Political Science) and several classes on different topics in EU law in the framework of PhD programmes, Master Degree courses and the School of specialization for the legal professions.

- Enseignant invité (2014, 2016) in Master degree courses at the Faculté de droit, Université Assas-Panthéon (Paris 2).
- Gave a vast number of lectures and seminars all over Italy and Europe, presented papers and chaired seminars and conferences, organised national and international conferences;
- Initiated and lead for several years the Rome Summer School of European Law - RoSSEL, organised by the SIOI (Italian Society of International Organisation) and the University of Rome Tor Vergata.

Non Academical experience and qualification

- Avvocato, qualified to represent clients before the Supreme Courts.
- Administrator and later Legal Secretary (Referendaire) at the Court of Justice of the European Union (1979-1987).
- Consultant at the Italian Ministry for Foreign Affairs. In this capacity took part in the legal team supporting the defense of the Italian Republic in the case "Legality of the use of force" (Serbia and Montenegro vs Italian Republic). Also presented the position of the Italian Government in several cases before the Court of Justice of the European Union.
- Member of the Coordination Committee of the Journal "Il diritto dell'Unione europea".
- Was correspondent from Italy of the Journal "European Law Review".
- President of the Italian Society of International law (SIDI-ISIL) (2004-2005).
- Co-director (with Professor Enzo Cannizzaro) of the Series of Monographs "La dimensione europea e internazionale del diritto", Editoriale Scientifica, Napoli.
- Rapporteur for Italy at the Fédération Internationale de droit européen (FIDE) conferences of Lisbon (1992) and in Berlin (1996).