

Curriculum Vitae - Gennaro Zezza

Education

Degree in Economics (Economia e Commercio) at Università Federico II, Napoli, in 1986 (110/110 cum laude)

Present positions

- Associate Professor, Università di Cassino e del Lazio Meridionale, Cassino (Italy). From 2002.
- Research Scholar, Levy Economics Institute at Bard College, Annandale on Hudson (United States). From 2002.

Key qualifications

Since my University degree in 1986 I have been specializing in macroeconomic modelling. Working with the late Wynne Godley in the UK, Denmark, and the US, I have contributed to the development of the post-Keynesian Stock-Flow-Consistent approach to the analysis of monetary economies. I have contributed to the development of empirical models for the United States, Greece, Ecuador, and Italy.

Membership in Editorial boards

Managing editor of European Journal of Economics and Economic Policies: Intervention (EJEEP)
In the editorial board of the Journal of Post-Keynesian Economics (JPKE)

Membership in academic organizations

Fellow, Forum for Macroeconomics and Macroeconomic Policies
Member of Società Italiana degli Economisti
